

Quality, Regulatory, and Product Claims Solutions for the Cosmetics Industry

Bringing Agility to the Cosmetics Industry

Global markets, faster production cycles and evolving regulations - these trends create opportunities for cosmetics companies to create better, safer and more sustainable products.

From development to marketing and regulatory affairs to quality management, Veeva helps eliminate inefficiencies and improve collaboration with all stakeholders across the globe.

- Ensure compliance with quality standards
- Manage the end-to-end process for product and marketing claims
- Centralize product and registration status, globally and regionally
- Securely store and manage action plans and investigation context
- Manage due dates and timelines for all processes
- Support cross-functional collaboration and training

"Veeva is essential to our strategy of making quality and innovation two key pillars of the company. We'll have greater flexibility in maintaining quality and drive greater efficiency in product development."
